Predict and Recommend

Scenario #1 -

Jon began attending CFAHS at the end of his Sophomore year. Due to responsibilities at home Jon often missed school resulting in poor attendance and low grades. When Jon began his Junior at CFAHS year he knew that he would be taking the ACT and was nervous about his scores since he was behind in skills from missing so much school. Predictions?

Scenario #2 -

Mary has been attending CFAHS for 3 years and is still taking TCAP due to not progressing to Junior point status. She has decided that she is going to ditch TCAP this year because she thinks it's unfair to have to take it again. Her future plans are to attend CU-Boulder for Veterinary Science. Predictions? Recommendations?

Scenario #3 -

Heather is a Freshman at CFAHS and is taking 7 classes/day. In the past she has struggled with attendance but has been working hard to have consistent transportation to school every day and is at 90%. Her family teacher told her that if she keeps up the hard work she may be a Junior by next Spring and would be eligible for the cosmetology program. Predictions? Recommendations?
